

June Declaration

Proverbs 18:16 states “A persons gifts makes room for him and brings him before great people”. I therefore decree and declare that my gifts will make room for me, place me in the right room, and give me righteous connections. Because of my gifts, granted by God, I am believing that those righteous connections will manifest themselves through the direction of the Holy Spirit. God will bring me into the presence of people, with hearts turned towards me, to give me what I need to move forward. I therefore decree and declare that I have stepped into a new season in my life. Doors will be opened, chains will be broken, and people will be present to provide, fill gaps, and make possible the impossible. I will walk with the expectation that this month will be the month that people who have the gifts, the talents, the resources, and relationships I need will find me, to fulfill what God has ordained to be fulfilled. By faith I will make preparation for these righteous connections, which will occur at the right place and right time. For I declare this is my season for God’s grace, his mercy, and his favor. Everything I need is now available to me.
