

October Declaration

A Declaration to GOD

Lord I want to focus on you and my love for you this entire month. Psalm 22:3 says, "you inhabit the Praises of Your people". Therefore, I will worship and praise you on purpose throughout the month of October. My thoughts will turn towards your goodness, your awesomeness, and your shekinah glory, seeking your presence throughout the month.

My focus will be on you Lord, and not my problems, trusting as Psalm 46:1 says, that you are "a very ready help in trouble". Therefore, I decree and declare to turn my burdens over to you Lord, each and every day. My love for you will not allow me to dwell in self-pity, fear, or doubt.

I decree and declare to spend time with you in worship this month, focusing on who you are. You're my savior, you're my promise keeper, you're my way maker, you're my confidant, you're my trusted friend, and my light in darkness. That is who you are, and that will be my focus for October. Because of who you are and in dedication to you, I will be patient in allowing your love to flow through my heart and spirit. I will dedicate myself to being faithful in my love towards you and sharing that love with those I encounter on a daily basis. For your word says in John 15:13 "Greater love has no one than this, that a person will lay down his life for his friends".

Because you loved me first, I dedicate myself in the month of October to show my expressions of love towards you through service, praise, worship, sacrifice, and connecting with you GOD through prayer and the reading of your word. I commit myself to a time of prayer and fasting so I may commune with you, in spirit and in truth. I am determined to have a closer walk with you, each and every day of my life, for the rest of my life.
